Brand Manager & Marketing Manager Based South Coast - £ Healthy + Excellent Benefits

We want to give children the best start in life. We need the best team. Could that include you?

Organix is a highly successful children's food company. We were founded to give children the best start in life by challenging the quality benchmarks in children's food. In 2004, we developed the Goodies brand which created the toddler snacking category and enjoys a strong market leading share position. Success to date has been via innovation and delivering against the consumer desire for healthy baby food & toddler snacking.

Innovative, dynamic and growing every year, our success comes from a 40-strong team of high achievers based on the south coast. As part of a European group the company now has many benefits of the parent whilst still operating autonomously, meaning you can really make a difference!

What we're looking for

At Organix we are always looking for the very best marketing talent – individuals that are energetic, action orientated and decisive...natural leaders! Currently we are looking for a Brand Manager to join the team but also have openings at Senior Brand / Marketing Manager level in the next few months so we would love to hear from marketers at all levels.

Permanent Brand Manager/Senior Brand Manager role – a fantastic opportunity for a bright and ambitious marketer - offering the full mix experience, and lots of autonomy to bring about change. We are looking for fast growth, driven by innovation so you must have experience in idea generation and bringing innovation to market. If you are always jumping up with new ideas and new ways of doing things, comfortable leading and motivating teams to deliver projects then we want to hear from you.

12 month contract Marketing Manager role – taking ownership of category and brand performance, this role is responsible for developing and executing brand strategy. Managing a small team, you will have responsibility for delivery of the business plan, utilising the full marketing mix, and developing great new foods for the future to ensure continued accelerated growth.

You'll be working with a strong team of fmcg marketers, helping to make better food for babies.

If you are a rising or established star in fmcg brand management, then we would love to hear from you.
